

Take Away Home Learning!

Choose your homework from the menu below
 Choose as many activities as you like but the more the better!

Create a diary entry (over the course of a few days) to document what you have been doing. Can you try to include some of your spelling words?	Measure the lengths of each room in the house and find the area and perimeter of each room. Can you draw a floor map of your house too?	Try and keep as active as possible. You could complete a 10 minute daily workout following this link: Type into Youtube "5minute workout for kids - Joe Wicks" Keep a diary of the exercise you have been doing.
Make a sculpture of the Olympic Torch using recycled materials from around your home.	Create a matching card game for fractions decimals and percentages.	Look through a magazine or a newspaper and circle the following: Subordinating conjunctions Co-ordination conjunctions Nouns, adjective and prepositions.
Research the History of Olympic Games. Can you create a fact file or a double page spread to demonstrate what you have discovered.	Practise these division questions using the bus stop method. 4410 divided by 98 3300 divided by 50 1647 divided by 27 *use the inverse to check your answers.	Create comprehension questions for a chapter of the book you are reading. You could even create the mark scheme too!
Using your spelling log, see what spellings you have incorrectly spelt. Can you revise these? Find the definitions and use them in a sentence.	Using your homework books for Grammar, Maths and Reading, can you revise any of the topics you have found challenging by creating a poster of 'top tips'?	Keep a reading diary of the books you have read. What did you like about them? What did you dislike about them? Record any questions you could ask the author.

Maths games you can access on-line, eg: TT Rock Stars – Can you half your current speed and be the champion of your class or year group?
Read as much as you can – Why don't you keep a 'reading diary'? Complete your tests on Accelerated Reader
Practise all of the spellings that you have learned this year and those from the High Frequency Word List