

Can you continue these warm-up patterns?

Can you change Little Timmy's text message into a more formal passage of writing in your best joined style?

This image shows a sheet of handwriting practice paper. It features five identical sets of horizontal lines arranged vertically. Each set is composed of three lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. These lines are designed to help learners practice consistent letter formation and alignment. The paper is otherwise blank, with no text or other markings.

Fluency, Style and Speed Practice: The Letter 'e'

Handwriting practice lines for the letter 'e'. The page contains ten sets of horizontal lines. Each set consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, providing a guide for letter height and placement.
