

Thursday – Independent – More Challenging

Match the labels with the groups.

equal unequal

True or false?

Here are 2 groups of 3 pencil cases.

Here are 3 groups of 3 pens.

Can you group these objects into equal groups?

2 equal groups of 3

There are..... equal groups of oranges.
There are..... oranges in each group.
There are groups of.....

3 equal groups of 2

There are..... equal groups of oranges.
There are..... oranges in each group.
There are groups of.....

Can you group these objects into equal groups?

5 equal groups of 2

There are..... equal groups of plums.
There are..... plums in each group.
There aregroups of.....

2 equal groups of 5

There are..... equal groups of plums.
There are..... plums in each group.
There aregroups of.....

Can you group these objects into equal groups?

6 equal groups of 2

There are..... equal groups of pens.
There are..... pens in each group.
There aregroups of.....

4 equal groups of 3

There are..... equal groups of pens.
There are..... pens in each group.
There aregroups of.....

2 equal groups of 6

There are..... equal groups of pens.
There are..... pens in each group.
There aregroups of.....

Draw equal groups using the instructions below.

- a Draw equal groups of 3 to give a total of more than 3 but less than 14.
- b Draw equal groups of 2 to give a total of more than 7 but less than 15.
- c Draw equal groups of 10 to give a total of more than 35 but less than 42.

Which groups are Leah and Chen describing?

There are two items in each group.
Which set am I thinking of?

There are three groups.
Which set am I thinking of?

Answers:

Match the labels with the groups.

equal

unequal

True or false?

Here are 2 groups of 3 pencil cases.

Here are 3 groups of 3 pens.

Unequal - Paper

Equal- Books

True

False

Can you group these objects into equal groups?

2 equal groups of 3

There are...2... equal groups of oranges.
There are...3... oranges in each group.
There are ...2... groups of...3..

3 equal groups of 2

There are...3... equal groups of oranges.
There are...2... oranges in each group.
There are ...3... groups of...2..

Can you group these objects into equal groups?

5 equal groups of 2

There are...5... equal groups of plums.
There are...2... plums in each group.
There are ...5...groups of...2..

2 equal groups of 5

There are...2... equal groups of plums.
There are...5... plums in each group.
There are .2...groups of...5..

Can you group these objects into equal groups?

6 equal groups of 2

There are...6... equal groups of pens.
There are...2... pens in each group.
There are ...6...groups of...2..

4 equal groups of 3

There are...4... equal groups of pens.
There are...3... pens in each group.
There are ..4...groups of...3..

2 equal groups of 6

There are...2... equal groups of pens.
There are...6... pens in each group.
There are .2...groups of...6..

Draw equal groups using the instructions below.

a Draw equal groups of 3 to give a total of more than 3 but less than 14.

Children will either draw 2, 3 or 4 equal groups of 3.

b Draw equal groups of 2 to give a total of more than 7 but less than 15.

Children will either draw 4, 5 or 6 equal groups of 2.

c Draw equal groups of 10 to give a total of more than 35 but less than 42.

Children will draw 4 equal groups of 10.

Leah is describing the pencils.

Chen could be describing any of the sets because they are all made up of three groups.